DETAILED ACTION

This is a response to the amendment filed 8/20/2004. Claims 1-19 are pending.

Terminal Disclaimer

1. The terminal disclaimer filed on 7/26/2004 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of USP 6,686,804 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-4, 6-12 and 14-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bult et al. (US 2003/0022646), newly cited prior art. Figure 46 shows voltage controlled oscillator (4618) providing a variable frequency output that depends, in part on an analog control input signal (output of low pass filter 4626), and in part on a capacitance connected to a capacitor input (input receive signals from register 4628) comprising a switchable bank of capacitors connected to said capacitor input and having a switch input to provide a selectable range of operating frequencies for VCO (paragraph 0323 of page 27), a sensor (4634, 4636) connected to the control of the VCO providing a measurement that varies as the magnitude of the control signal, said sensor having more than two output values that vary as the magnitude of the control signal (output voltage of the sensor having more than two output values falls between a window V1 and V2. see paragraph 0324), a controller (4628) connected to the switch input and accepting the control signal magnitude indication, the controller providing control to the switchable capacitor bank to maintain the operating point of VCO close to the desirable operating point as called for in claims 1-4, 6-12, and 14-17.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claim 19 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. Claims 5, 13 and 18 are presently allowed.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
